Women's Crisis Support Team receives a grant from Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation.

WCST is the recipient of a $10,000.00 grant from the Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation to help fund a Family Resource Advocate position to help victims of domestic violence.

Women's Crisis Support Team is dedicated to breaking the cycle of Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault through intervention, prevention, and safe shelter.

The mission of the Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation is to offer assistance to youth education, strengthening the home and family, youth programs, and in general add to the quality of life for people in the community.

In 1997 the Tribe formalized this tradition of philanthropy by establishing a grant making foundation, first know as the Cow Creek Seven Feathers Foundation. In the spring of 2000 the foundation changed its name to the Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation, to emphasize that it is a private independent foundation, representing the Tribe, and not to be confused with one of the Tribe's many economic development endeavors, the Seven Feathers Resort.
