WOMEN'S CRISIS SUPPORT TEAM RECEIVES GRANT FROM THE COLLINS FOUNDATION

GRANTS PASS OR, FEBRUARY 8, 2010:

The Women's Crisis Support Team (WCST) is the recipient of a $20,000 grant from the Collins Foundation to help fund the position of the Community Educator.

Women's Crisis Support Team is dedicated to ending the cycle of domestic violence and sexual assault through intervention, prevention, and safe shelter.

The Collins Foundation, an independent private foundation, was created in 1947 by Truman W. Collins and other members of the family of E.S. Collins. The Collins Foundation exists to improve, enrich, and give greater expression to the religious, educational, cultural, and scientific endeavors in the state of Oregon and to assist in improving the quality of life in the state.
